PERFORM+ suite of products for data and performance management

In a fast-converging healthcare ecosystem shaped by shared risk and changing regulatory needs, healthcare organizations are quickly moving to outcome-based approaches, based on massive volumes of healthcare data, advanced analytics and AI. Interoperability, data scalability and effective management of value-based performance goals are critical success factors for healthcare organizations in their journey towards better care delivery.

CitiusTech's PERFORM+ suite of products enables healthcare and life sciences organizations to address complex business needs such as data scalability and interoperability, value-based contracts, quality management, regulatory compliance and CMS Star ratings. It gives analytics and informatics teams, performance management teams, decision makers and technology teams the ability to configure and deploy one-or-more PERFORM+ products and design custom solutions based on their unique performance management needs.

PERFORM+ is supported by CitiusTech's global healthcare technology teams with specialized expertise around healthcare consulting, digital engineering, data, analytics and AI.
